

Be Part of the Best:

Reformer Pilates Instructors Wanted

Take your place in an award-winning independent health club and bring our dedicated Reformer Pilates studio to life.

We're looking for inspiring instructors who can deliver exceptional sessions, energise the space, and build strong connections with members.

If you're passionate about movement, community, and standout experiences, this is your moment.

If you're passionate about guiding members, inspiring movement, and helping people achieve their fitness goals, we want to hear from you. Join The Thames Club and bring your Reformer Pilates expertise to a vibrant, high-energy environment where both our team and members thrive.

To apply, please send your CV to
